Overview

The Niagara County Historian's Office has digital copies from microfilm of The Niagara Democrat newspaper. The Historian's Office is located at: 139 Niagara St., Lockport, NY 14094 and their website is: <https://www.niagaracounty.com/departments/g-l/historian.php>. Please reach out to them to view the issues of The Niagara Democrat.

The Niagara Democrat published weekly out of Lockport, NY and, in 1852, was four pages in length. Learn more about The Niagara Democrat at: <https://chroniclingamerica.loc.gov/lccn/sn85042241/>.

Below is an index of the names that I found for all of the issues in 1852 within the paper's Marriages and Deaths section (there was no section for births). I also included a few obituary names that caught my eye that were for local people and not national stories.
